The Curriculum for Wales

The schools follows the Curriculum for Wales and endeavours to provide an education that is relevant to the experiences of our pupils and the world around them.

It is a journey - it will build their ability to learn new skills and apply their subject knowledge more positively and creatively with real life meaning and experiences.

The Four Purposes

The 'Four Purposes' are at the heart of the Curriculum for Wales. These have guided the whole design of the curriculum and set out the aspirations for all children and young people in Wales. They are a starting point for all decisions on the content and experiences developed as part of the curriculum.

The purpose of the curriculum is to support learners to be:

- Ambitious, capable learners ready to learn throughout their lives
- Enterprising, creative contributors, ready to play a full part in life and work
- Healthy, confident individuals, ready to lead fulfilling lives as valued members of society
- Ethical, informed citizens of Wales and the world

Areas of Learning Experiences (AoLEs)

The curriculum is about connecting learning and ensuring that learning focuses on what matters for learners now and in the future. As well as learning the three cross-curricular responsibilities: literacy, numeracy and digital skills, there will be six areas of learning and experience. Everything children learn will connect to these areas:

- Health and Wellbeing
- Language, Literacy and Communication
- Mathematics and Numeracy
- Expressive Arts
- Humanities
- Science and Technology

The curriculum will also cover:

- Human rights and the United Nations Conventions on the Rights of the Child
- Diversity and respecting differences
- Experiences and skills for careers and the workplace
- Local, national and international aspects of all learning
- Relationships and Sexuality Education (RSE)

Weekly Home Learning

Home Learning has a positive impact on children's learning. We want home learning to be an integral part of learning that is going on in school. We encourage parents/carers to support with home learning throughout the week:

Reading: The recommended amount of reading is 10 minutes per day. Please listen to your child reading and make a comment in the reading diary. A new book will be given each time it is returned and signed.

Topic Tasks: Teachers will provide a selection of practical home learning activities that link to the topic children are learning about in class. Parents and children can choose activities they want to complete and share any work with the class teacher. This will be celebrated in class.

3650 minutes in one year
25,550 minutes by year 6
